

We in Wisconsin passed a No Call List that we deemed necessary and good for our residents. While the federal list was a step, it is not enough. I request that the FCC take the wishes of the state of Wisconsin into consideration when making a decision regarding this issue. We want our laws to be preserved and the harassment from telemarketers to remain impeded.